DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims are directed to processes that do nothing more than solve mathematical problems with claims 1-8 being directed to calculating the greatest common divisor of two numbers and claims 9-14 being directed to determining a prime number which defines a Finite field. The claims define nonstatutory processes because they consist solely of mathematical operations without some claimed practical application.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 15-20 allowed.
